

PGE & CO

Since 1972

Profile

PGE&Co (P.G. Economides & Co Limited) is a member of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("ICPAC"), the regulatory body of the accounting profession in Cyprus.

The company is headed by a selected group of experienced and multi-disciplined directors who share their knowledge with their team and clients.

Started over 50 years ago by Peter G. Economides in a small apartment in London and grown to be one of the most trusted audit firms in Cyprus and abroad, our firm boasts the success of our clients and our people.

No matter how difficult, complicated, big or demanding the assignment is, there is nothing we haven't worked on before or that we cannot solve.

"We win all of our clients with our reputation, and we keep them with our quality."

Our dedication is to the success of our clients.

A message from the founder of our firm, Mr. Peter G. Economides:

"We created this firm and built it on solid grounds, always thinking ahead and always striving to become better. We commit to all our clients that their success is paramount to us."

We give value to each and every client by providing direct access to our management team. In this way, we guarantee the best response time for all inquiries, requests for new business, or any other business related matter.
